

|                                                                                                |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Place the following river in its most applicable DO: 1. Sil 2. Guadalette                      |  |
| What is the min. ABV and min. bottle aging for Gran Reserva Rioja?                             |  |
| What are the DO's of the Aragon?                                                               |  |
| Describe the soil of Priorat.                                                                  |  |
| What is the white grape of Ribera del Duero? What is it used for?                              |  |
| Which mountain range sits directly north of Raimat?                                            |  |
| How long must Reserva Cava be aged on its lees?                                                |  |
| Which body of water regulates the climate of the Basque region?                                |  |
| What is the minimum total aging for Sherry?                                                    |  |
| Who produces the following wines: 1. Benjamin Romeo 2. El Pison 3. Prado Enea                  |  |
| What is the main grape of Jumilla?                                                             |  |
| Which region is surrounded by La Mancha?                                                       |  |
| Which river moderates the Extremadura Autonomia?                                               |  |
| Define Mitad y Mitad.                                                                          |  |
| What is the native white grape utilized in Valencia?                                           |  |
| What is Trepas? What is it used for?                                                           |  |
| Upon completion of sobretablas, a wine classified as Raya will end up as which type of Sherry? |  |
| Where does Teso la Monja produce wine?                                                         |  |
| Name 3 vineyards for Lopez de Heredia.                                                         |  |
| Name 2 subzones of the Vinos de Madrid DO.                                                     |  |
| What is the parentage of Tempranillo?                                                          |  |
| What are the 5 original "Clos" of Priorat?                                                     |  |
| What are the Vinos de Pagos in Tierra Estella?                                                 |  |
| What is Cencibel?                                                                              |  |
| Which is more northerly: Cigales or Carinena?                                                  |  |